

Open My Eyes to Your Word

Praying before the throne of God and meditating on the word of God are like parallel rails that enable the train of our souls to stay on the track that leads to holiness and heaven.

-John Piper

“Remember my words with your whole being. Write them down and tie them to your hands as a sign; tie them on your foreheads to remind you.”

Deuteronomy 11:18 NCV

It seems lately that everywhere I turn psalm 119 is popping up during my day and what a wonderful psalm it is...

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.”

Psalms 119:105 AMP

Some of my favorite Bible verses are found in Psalm 119. I probably love it so much because it's all centered around God's Word and how great it is...

“Every Scripture has been inspired by the Holy Spirit, the breath of God. It will empower you by its instruction and correction, giving you the strength to take the right direction and lead you deeper into the path of godliness.”

2 Timothy 3:16 TPT

God's Word is amazing to me every time I read it. I love it when I experience new revelation even if it's a familiar passage, The Spirit makes it like I'm reading it for the first time...

“He supernaturally unlocked their understanding to receive the revelation of the Scriptures,”

Luke 24:45 TPT

I quite often pray one of my favorite verses from Psalm 119 right before I read the Bible, In preparation for that revelation to occur and The Spirit does not disappoint...

“Open my eyes to see the miracle-wonders hidden in your word.”

Psalms 119:18 TPT

God's Word is so wonderful, I truly am energized and renewed every time I read it. It's no wonder that God made it the focus of the longest Psalm in the Bible...

“For we have the living Word of God, which is full of energy, like a two-mouthed sword. It will even penetrate to the very core of our being where soul and spirit, bone and marrow meet! It interprets and reveals the true thoughts and secret motives of our hearts.”

Hebrews 4:12 TPT

The Bible tells us over and over how important the Word of God is. I can't begin to count how many verses state that. Even Jesus himself told us several times about the importance of His Words...

“The earth and sky will wear out and fade away before one word I speak loses its power or fails to accomplish its purpose.””

Matthew 24:35 TPT

God himself spoke through Isaiah to tell everyone about His Word and how He will use it to accomplish His purposes...

"It is the same with my word. I send it out, and it always produces fruit. It will accomplish all I want it to, and it will prosper everywhere I send it."

Isaiah 55:11 NLT

I love John Piper's quote at the beginning. Praying and meditating on God's Word are definitely like the rails that lead the train of our souls right into God's holy presence...

Oh, how I love Your law! It is my meditation all the day."

Psalms 119:97 AMP

My prayer for us today is that we take time to meditate on God's Word. Get our souls on the right track that's headed to where God is waiting. I truly believe that God does meet us there in the pages of His Word and that there can be (and is) new revelation each and every time you read it.

Don't get off track, either left or right, so as to make sure you get to where you're going. And don't for a minute let this Book of The Revelation be out of mind. Ponder and meditate on it day and night, making sure you practice everything written in it. Then you'll get where you're going; then you'll succeed.
